THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 17.

DISRAELI'S GENEROUS PATRON.—The episode about Mrs. Sarah Williams is romantic enough. The old lady-she was nearly 100 years old when she died-was a strict Jewess, and she read with delight Mr. Disraeli's defence of their race, forgiving his profession of Christianity for his maintenance of the dignity of Judaism. Mr. Disraeli was as amused as he was surprised when he received her first letter expressing her respect for his services, hinting at her wealth, and inviting him, together with his wife, to stay with her at Torquay when their engagements would permit. Fortunately Mr. Disraeli's lawyer saw something more significant in the matter than an ordinary compliment. Inquiries were made, and in the end the invitation was accepted. For years an annual visit was paid to the venerable lady in her Devonshire home, and the initiated smiled at the oddness of the friendship; but she kept her word, and a legacy of some £40,000 proved in a substantial manner the reality, on her side, of the attachment. - London Letter.

A FORCED MARRIAGE ANNULLED. - Several months ago a young man named William Foeble, residing on a farm about twelve miles west of the city, was forcibly taken from his home by one or two determined men and conducted to the residence of a neighbor, and there, against his remonstrances and protestations, was compelled to stand up with one Mary Oerhausen, while Rev. Mr. Shumate performed the marriage ceremony and declared the couple to be husband and wife. Foeble immediately fled from the presence of the bride, and, coming to the city, obtained the services of Mr. W. H. Lackland, who instituted a suit to have the alleged marriage declared void. The case came up yesterday before Judge Knight, and the hated nuptials were squelehed by the stern mandate of the law, and William is now free to contract a more agreeable marriage. - St. Louis Democrat.

TICTOR SEWING MACHINES.

Among its many points of excellence may be mentioned that it is the only lock-stitch machine that has its needle self-setting. The needle cannot be set wrong.

It has a shuttle-carrier that obviates all friction of shuttle, rendering the machine nearly noiseless. It has a self adjusting bobbin-winder, requiring no charge to wind the bobbin.

Combines all the latest improvements, having no wires or spiral springs connected with its working parts. It has a positive thread-controller and tension, requiring no change in sewing from the finest to the heaviest material. The new patent shuttle is the most convenient and perfect working shuttle in use. The tension does not change from a fail to an empty bobbin. It is so easily operated that it requires little instruction, and there is nothing in it to get out of perfect working order. It will stitch, hem, fell, bind, cord. gather, quilt, hem-stitch, embroider, braid, &c., with as much beauty and perfection as any machine before the public.
